Luncheon Meeting, 11:45 AM, Friday, East Memphis Hilton

The Profits Most Who Serves Best

PAST PRESIDENT LEROY DAHLER offered the Invocation and afterward led us in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

PRESIDENT HENRY FRANCIS, back from his vacation in the East, welcomed us to the 1198th meeting of the Rotary Club of Memphis South.

OUR CLUB IS ON THE MOVE

We hope that we are on the move with new members but rumor has it that there is more in our future than most of us know just now. The possibility of moving to a better place for our meetings where we can have the same room all of the time and being wanted as well, certainly makes the future look bright. We shall keep you informed on the outcome!

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS Doc Harris is still out of town and Don Palmer is subbing for him. Don certainly makes it interesting! Gary Rutherford and Jim Crone were privileged pay the fine. Dan Michael was slated to go on the wheel but made an impassioned plea for mercy. He explained that at 11:43 last Friday, his first granddaughter was being born and of course he was there and not at Rotary. Everyone agreed that his excuse was valid.

Absent from the meeting were: Bert Canfield, Fred Davis, Jim Drake, Doc Hattis, Diane Hunt, John May, Floyd McDaniel, Tom Michael, Bob Neal, Roger Sawyer, John Shepherd and Dick Wieland. This list makes you wonder just who was there!

FLOYD'S FAVORITE CHARITY

Harvey Marcom substituted in the absence of Floyd McDaniel. Harvey had $31 each for the Scholarship Fund and the holder of the lucky ticket. Ticket #7269104 was held by Al Hollingsworth. Congratulations to you Al!

REDBIRDS OUTING

The Autozone Ball Park will be well represented by Memphis South Rotarians on Tuesday evening, August 22nd when many of our members attend a Redbirds game.

Remember that this will take the place of our regular meeting on Friday. The gates open at 5:30 and in the interim between then and the game at 7:05, dinner will be served in a private room for the Memphis South Rotarians. You will have a choice of Bar BQ or Hamburger. The entrance for groups attending is not the regular entrance for the populous but on Union Avenue. Keep this in mind.

TELL ABOUT YOURSELF

In order that we may know each other better, we have again begun the practice of having one member stand before the group and tell all about himself/herself. This segment of our meeting is chaired by Rod Ashley and he chose Gordon Wilson to be the first of the present series. Gordon told everything from mentioning his two daughters, wife Debra and his employment with Life Blood. We think this will allow newer members to know all of us better.

UPCOMING PROGRAMS

August 11 - Roger Knox, Memphis Zoo (don't miss this one.)

August 18 - Dr. Steinhaver, president of the Med.

August 25 - Redbirds game

September 1 - Jane Walters (invite some guests for this one. Ada Jane is an excellent and fun speaker!

September 8 - Tera Taylor, Memphis Literacy Council. She will discuss the "Read to Me" program.

On September 29th, our District Governor Bill Cook will make his official visit. Please be present to hear him and make him welcome.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

We were delighted by the visit of Reggie Williams of the Redbird Staff. Reggie and his wife have three children and he went to college in Baton Rouge. He has played professional baseball with the Dodgers and the Cleveland Indians.

Reggie reminded us that the downtown area is become viable with all the improvements to the area. One of the biggest and best is the Autozone Park. He reminded us that the economy of the area is based largely upon the fact that we are a DISTRIBUTION CENTER. There are more than 250 separate trucking companies and two major railroads in the city.
