FLOYD'S FAVORITE CHARITY

Floyd McDaniel worked extremely hard and had $51 each for the Scholarship Fund and the holder of the lucky ticket. JEAN PATTERSON took home the cash. As we have told you previously, Jean is an ardent supporter of this fund and it is well and good that she was a WINNER. Congratulations to you Jean and thank you for your spirit. Thanks go out to all of those who participated.

MAKING ROTARY KNOWN IN THE COMMUNITY

"When others learn of Rotary's good work, they admire us. By making a good impression on non-Rotarians, we strengthen our positive image. And never before has image been so important. Let's face it; We live in a day and age of public relations, and we simply must take advantage of the opportunities at our disposal."

Frank J. Devlin, President, Rotary International

In the past, Rotarians were hesitant to publicize their humanitarian efforts because they did not want to be perceived as self-serving. Therefore, they performed their good deeds in silence. But, as R. I. President Frank Devlin points out, times have changed. In today's high tech, media savvy age, public relations has become essential to the health and vitality of any organization. To underscore the importance of this shift, President Frank lists public relations as an essential priority for Rotary in the 21st Century.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

District Governor Bill Cook of Batesville, Mississippi was our speaker for the day. Bill is an attorney, a pilot, a world traveller and a staunch family man. He and his wife Mary Jo have three children, Leslie, Will and Maribeth. Mary Jo has been a kindergarten teacher for 25 years.

Bill brought an Ole Miss, autographed football, donated by son Will and sold chances with hopes of sending $5000 to the Foundation of Rotary International.

Bill spoke of the decline of Rotary membership and suggested that you keep what you have and then go after other new members. He suggested that to keep our membership, we must have a good environment, good programs and good food.

We are happy to meet with the Bartlett Rotarians today. Your reporter has a strong feeling for this club as he was instrumental in its formation during his first tenure as District Governor.
