The Profits Most Who Serves Best

MEMPHIS SOUTH ROTARIAN
PUBLISHED WEEKLY JOHN BENNETT, EDITOR
SEPTEMBER 15, 2000

MARK EDWARDS offered the Invocation and afterward led us in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

PRESIDENT ELECT JEAN PATTERSON welcomed us to the 1203rd meeting of the Rotary Club of Memphis South.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS

SEGEANT-AT-ARMS Doc Harris was absent but was ably represented by Past President and Past Sergeant-At-Arms Don Palmer. Don began by asking Chester Perry if he had not been in the newspaper and Chester asked, "what paper." This was referring to a picture of Chester's parking space at St. Mary's which appeared in the Commercial Appeal. Fred Davis was also reprimanded for his exposure in print and he replied that it was MARY who was in the limelight and not him. He told us of a ONE-WAY Ticket to England which Mary had won in a membership contest at the Summit Club. Hugh Thomas had one absence for which to pay and the Michael Brothers were neither wearing a Rotary Pin. The two spins resulted in a $6 fine which had to be paid by the offenders.

Absent from the meeting were: Bert Canfield, Jerry Daws, Jim Drake, Henry Francis, Doc Harris, Diane Hunt, R. E. Linkous, Bill Matthews, Randolph Reeves, Tidwell Semmes, Tom Sutton and Dick Wieland.

WELCOME TO CHICKASAW COUNTRY CLUB

Today is the beginning of what we hope will be a great association - our meeting at Chickasaw Country Club. Look about you, Rotarians, do you see any difference in the surroundings which we have enjoyed (sic) in the past? We are grateful to Bill Matthews for arranging all of this and we know that the staff here will do everything in their power to make our relationship a good one. Let us all cooperate with the staff and enjoy our new HOME!

GUESTS AND VISITING ROTARIANS

Past President Dan Michael introduced the guests and visiting Rotarians. John Miller was visiting us from the Germantown Club and Jack Smith was visiting us from the Rotary Club of Memphis.

We are all pleased to welcome our guests. We have told all of the neighboring clubs about our move to Chickasaw and we hope to have many more.

FLOYD'S FAVORITE CHARITY

Ask Floyd McDaniel what he loves most about our club and he will quickly tell you that it is the Scholarships which we give each year. Floyd's dedication to YOUTH is exemplified each week by his endeavors to raise money for the Scholarship Fund. This week he had $49 for the Club and $48 for the winner of ticket #7269490. After having purchased $20 worth of tickets, Jean Patterson held the winning ticket. She does this each week and certainly does not win every week. Congratulations to you Jean and we offer our appreciation to all of you who regularly purchase these tickets. Every contribution helps!

PLEA FOR BLOOD DONATIONS

Gordon Wilson appealed again for contributions to the much needed blood supply in our city. The supply is dangerously low and no surgeries requiring blood transfusions can be scheduled unless they are critical. Think of all those who need blood regularly to survive and as Gordon has said to the news media, "nothing can take the place of human blood." We hope you can see it in your heart to make a donation. Remember to credit RCMS - the Rotary Club of Memphis South. We will lose our every member coverage from the blood bank if we do not increase our donations of blood. Think about it!

NINE MEMBERS DELINQUENT IN THEIR DUES

Gary Rutherford announced that there are nine members who need to bring their dues payments up to date. This is necessary. If you are not current then you are attempting to take a FREE RIDE. This certainly would not pass the 4 Way Test.'

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

We were privileged to have Sarah Taylor of the Memphis Literacy Council as our speaker for the day. Sarah spoke about the gathering of books in which we have participated under the direction of Dana Davis. "There are many young children who have never held a book," she said, "and we want to make it possible for them to have fuller lives through reading." More than 1000 books have been collected this year and more than 2500 have been handed out to these children.

Realizing that funds are needed to obtain books and other materials, Gordon Wilson surprised a tearful Sarah with a check for $1000 from the Rotary Foundation of Memphis South.
