The Profits Most Who Serves Best

MEMPHIS SOUTH ROTARIAN
PUBLISHED WEEKLY JOHN BENNETT, EDITOR
SEPTEMBER 19, 1997

JIM DRAKE offered the Invocation and afterward led us in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

PRESIDENT TOM MICHAEL welcomed us to the 1067th meeting of the Rotary Club of Memphis South.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS LARRY CONN was up to the task on Friday and his first spin of the wheel was a “?” and the second was $4 which gave the following the privilege of paying this unusual amount: Andrew Ellis, Randolph Reeves, Leon Lebovitz, Jim Drake, Ray Baxter and John May. Bert Canfield, Jerry Dawys and Henry Francis had all made up.

Absent from the meeting were: Rod Ashley, Elizabeth Bradshaw, George Chism, Ken Cole, Leroy Dahler, Mark Edwards, Harold Ford, Danny Johnson, Fara Johnson, R. E. Linkous, Bob Mackie, Harvey Marcom, Bob Neal, John Shepherd, Jack Springer, Debbie Vaiden and Bill Wood.

NEW MEMBER

SEAN DENLEY was presented to the club by his sponsor, JIM CRONE and was inducted into the membership of the club by PDG John Bennett. Sean is a STOCK BROKER with Smith -Barney. He and his wife, Pamela, reside at 2142 Kingham in Germantown. His office telephone is 524-4893. Please welcome Sean into the membership of our club.

GUESTS AND VISITING ROTARIANS

BERT CANFIELD introduced the guests and visiting Rotarians. We were pleased to again have Ashley Favas of Perth, Australia visiting us once again. He has been on a trip around the United States and was departing for home on Saturday..We were also pleased to have John Deluca visiting from Jonesboro, Arkansas. Greg Evans was visiting from Olive Branch, Mississippi. The remaining visiting Rotarians were from the Rotary Club of Memphis and included: William P. Stokes, Anthony Tate, Pam Potter and Burt Lawler. Our visitors are always important to the life of our club. Be sure that you make them welcome.

FLOYD AND THE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

FLOYD McDANIEL had another good day with his own private charity - the Scholarship Fund. Floyd had $41 each for the fund and the holder of the lucky ticket who on this occasion was non other than our president, Tom Michael. Congratulations to you Tom and we offer our thanks to all of those who regularly participate in this endeavor.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

We must remind you again of our annual Christmas Party at the home of John and Edna Bennett on December 6, 1997. This is always a fun occasion and it cannot be a success unless all of us participate. It is not too early for you to start amassing items to be sold in our Silent Auction. This has always proven to be our best fund-raiser of the year. Let us all join in and surpass what we did last year. Make your plans NOW, put this on your calendar!

TODAY'S PROGRAM

We welcome Burt Waller as our speaker today. Burt is the CEO of The Med. We are sure that you will enjoy what he has to offer.

Geoff Calkins will be our speaker on the 26th. He is with the Commercial Appeal.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

The 1997-1998 Chair of the Memphis City Beautiful Commission, Judy Jucker, was our speaker for the day. Judy is a fourth year veteran of the MCBC and is a true “Renaissance Lady” of the 90's. She is a District Sales Manager with KLM/Northwest World Vacations. Her job responsibilities place her in numerous exciting cities on the globe, but her keen interest in and love for Memphis keep her extremely active here also. We are proud that Northwest sets a fine example for local sponsorships to, such as the fabulous beautification project, the flowering “M” at Madison and East Parkway.

Judy is a member of the Downtown Neighborhood Association, Women In Travel, Blues Society and Blues Foundation. She manages to find a way with each group to focus their interest periodically toward environmental issues and beautification. As Judy says, “its the clean issue - you know, litter drives me crazy.....I find myself picking up litter every weekend near my downtown residence.”

The Memphis City Beautiful Commission was the first in the United States and founded in 1930. Some of the planned projects include: making Memphis green along Plough Boulevard; a two year plan to improve the Airport Entrance; its youth program, involving youth of all ages in an educational and hands-on experience; LITTER PREVENTION. Call 528-CLEAN. Thank you Horace for this program.
